TSYS Acquiring Solutions Becomes Premier Partner of W.net

Tempe, Ariz., April 15, 2008 — TSYS Acquiring Solutions® today announced it has renewed its sponsorship and has become a premier partner for Women Networking in Electronic Transactions (W.net), a forum for professional women in the electronic transactions industry.

The corporate sponsorship provides W.net with the financial means to offer numerous programs for women, such as ongoing professional education, leadership development, mentoring and networking opportunities.

As a premier partner, TSYS Acquiring Solutions supports the advancement of women in the electronic transactions industry by championing the promotion of the W.net to its female employees and to other payment industry organizations.

“We are excited to partner with W.net to help the organization extend its reach to women in the electronic payments industry,” said Patty Bengtson, senior vice president of finance and accounting at TSYS Acquiring Solutions. “TSYS Acquiring Solutions is also proud to once again become a corporate sponsor of W.net. Our support furthers the growth and professional development of women in our industry.”
